Standing Rules of the Mississippi Conference

Standing Committees.

The Presiding Elders are instructed to meet in advance of the first morning session of the Conference, and to have the Standing Committees ready for nomination at the opening of the Conference.—Journal 1882, page 10.

Censure for Not Appearing for Examination.

It is cause for censure for any preacher to fail, without good reason, to appear before the committee for examination.—Journal 1891, page 37.

Pastors and Collections.

Pastors are instructed to prorate all collections taken on assessments, so as not to discriminate against one claim in favor of another.—Journal 1898, page 18.

Mississippi Orphans' Home.

Each pastor is required to devote one Sunday in each year to the interests of the Orphans' Home, and promptly forward amounts contributed to the Treasurer of the Home.—Journal 1902, page 40.

Reports and Resolutions.

Reports and resolutions should be written with ink and presented in duplicate.—Journal 1903, page 14.

Lay Membership in the District Conference.

The Lay Membership in the District Conference shall consist of one delegate from each church for every one hundred members and fraction of two-thirds thereof; provided, that each church shall have at least one delegate. These delegates shall be elected by the Church Conference.—Journal 1910, page 78.

Pastor's Reports.

The pastors shall present the reports of their charges to the Auditing Committee not later than the time of roll call at the opening of the second day's session.

2nd. The pastors shall report only even dollars in the statistical tables.—Journal 1913, page 51.

Correspondence School and Examining Committees.

Examining Committees are authorized to accept certificates from the Correspondence School and the Seashore Divinity School in lieu of examinations by themselves.—Journal 1914, page 57.

Conference Sacramental Service.

At future sessions of the Conference it shall be the standing order to hold the Conference Sacramental Service in connection with and immediately following the devotional service at the opening session of each Conference.—Journal 1914; page 35.

Publication Report of Divinity School.

The annual report of the Seashore Divinity School shall be read on the Conference floor and published in the Journal.—Journal 1916, page 31.

Annual Conference Preaching Services.

During Conference sessions the evening hour each day shall be devoted to the preaching of the Gospel.—Journal 1917, page 21.

Report Number One of the Board of Missions.

Report Number One of the Board of Missions was read as follows:

To the President and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—We, your Conference Board of Missions, beg leave to submit the following report:

In this momentous hour, when victory has come to the forces of Righteousness after the most terrible struggle of all history, there comes to the Christian Church in America the greatest call to Missionary effort the world has ever known. The old order of things is fast passing away, both in the Orient and in Europe, and a new world is being fashioned.

As Dr. W. W. Pinson, our General Secretary, well says in his message to our Conference: "In the Providence of God our Missionary Centenary comes in the midst of this crucial hour in the world's history. It calls on American Methodism to take stock of the past and face its task for the new century. The General Conference has by unanimous vote, authorized and provided for a worthy celebration of this great event, and set for the Church the most gigantic task yet conceived. The aims set before us are no less than those of deepening the spiritual life, the enlistment of a million of intercessors, the arousing of a sense of Stewardship, the creation of a habit of proportionate Scriptural giving, and the increase of the Missionary Income for the next five years from two million dollars a year to seven million dollars a year from all sources."

Inasmuch as the share of the $35,000,000.00 Centenary Fund allotted to our Conference is $954,520.40 to be raised in the next five years, therefore, be it resolved, that we, the members of the Mississippi Conference, heartily accept this allotment, and pledge ourselves to co-operate to the utmost of our ability in this great Missionary movement to win the world for Christ in this generation.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. LaPRADE, President.

M. M. BLACK, Secretary.

Pending the adoption of the report an amendment was offered increasing the amount allotted to the Conference from $954,520.40 to $1,000,000.00. The report as amended was adopted by a rising vote.

Report Number One of the Sunday School Board.

Report Number One of the Sunday School Board was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—Whereas, we the Sunday School Board of the Mississippi Annual Conference, do believe that the movement of the Centenary of Missions is the providential call of God to the Church.

We therefore recommend for each school within the Conference:

First: A monthly programme of Missions.

Second: A Missionary Committee.

Third: A minimum offering of 5c per member each month.

H. F. TOLLE, President.

W. A. HAYS, Secretary.

Telegram from W. W. Pinson—The following telegram was read:

Nashville, Tenn., 2:43 P. M.

Rev. J. L. Neill,

McComb, Miss.

Regret I cannot be with you; praying for great day.

W. W. PINSON.

The Conference was led by H. W. Featherstun in special prayer for the safety and success of Dr. Pinson and his co-laborers in the war stricken regions to which they have gone.

Adjourned—Announcements were made and the Conference adjourned with the benediction pronounced by G. S. Harmon.

Whereas, we are apprised of the sudden death of Mrs. C. H. Otken of this city, widow of the late Dr. Otken, and mother of Mrs. B. F. Lewis, wife of the Rev. B. F. Lewis, member of this Conference.

And whereas, the influence which has gone out from this home for nearly half a century has been of the true Christian type, therefore, be it resolved:

First: That we, the members of the Mississippi Annual Conference, assembled in session in McComb, Miss., on this the 7th day of December in the year of our Lord, 1918, do hereby express our appreciation of the life and labors of Mrs. Otken and her lamented husband, and our sympathy for our Sister Lewis and the other members of the bereaved family.

Second: That a copy of this resolution be sent to the family and also transcribed upon our minutes.

Signed:

W. M. SULLIVAN,
C. A. SCHULTZ,
J. T. LEGGETT,
J. LOYD DECELL,
PAUL D. HARDIN.

Respectfully submitted,

A. F. WATKINS,
G. S. HARMON.

Credentials Surrendered—The credentials of Luke C. Freeman, a Local Preacher of the Newton District, surrendered during the year, were deposited with the Secretary of the Conference, by the Presiding Elder.

Report Number One of the Joint Board of Finance.

Report Number One of the Joint Board of Finance was read as follows:

To Bishop and Members of The Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—Your Joint Board begs to submit the following: In view of the tremendous advance in the price of all living expenses and the further fact that our apportionments are entirely inadequate for the support of worthy claimants, we have assessed the Conference for the ensuing year $17,500, all of which we will need to give those who are dependent on us anything like a comfortable support.

J. M. MORSE, Chairman.

W. M. SULLIVAN, Secretary.

Pending the adoption of the report an amendment was offered making the amount named $20,000.00 instead of $17,500.00.

The report as amended was adopted.

Question of Law—The following Question of Law was presented to the President of the Conference:

To Bishop Jno. C. Kilgo, President of the Mississippi Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in McComb, Mississippi, December 7, 1918:

Dear Brother—Since there seems to be a difference in the practice of the different Annual Conferences of our Church, and

Since there seems to be a conflict between Paragraphs 437 and 448 of the Book of Discipline of 1918, and

Since very meager information is given in the leaflets sent out by Bishop Jno. M. Moore,

We respectfully ask that you interpret said Paragraphs 437 and 448 of the Discipline of 1918, and give us your decision as to the authority of the Conference Board of Finance to make assessment, for the Superannuate Preachers, and the Widows, and Orphans of deceased Preachers, and distribute the said assessment to the various districts of the Annual Conference, and as to the authority that the Commission of Finance has with reference to assessments made by the Conference Board of Finance for Conference Claimants.

Signed,

J. M. MORSE, President of the Joint Board of Finance.

M. L. BURTON, Chairman, Commission on Finance.

The Bishop stated that it was not a question calling for an Episcopal decision, but that his ex-cathedra opinion was that the Joint Board of Finance is concerned alone with the assessments and distribution of the collections of the superannuated preachers, their widows and orphans, and that the Conference Commission on Finance is concerned with the pro-rata distribution of all the funds to the various Boards.

Conference Treasurer—On motion of C. W. Crisler that the Conference elect a Conference Treasurer, W. D. Davis was nominated and unanimously elected.

Financial Plan—A motion was passed by the Conference allowing the Commission on Finance to work out its own plan for the distribution of the funds.

Expenses of Treasurer—On motion the Commission on Finance was authorized to levy an assessment of $300.00 on the Conference for expenses of the Conference Treasurer.

Question Nine—"Who are the Deacons of one year?" was called, and the following having stood an approved examination on the Course of Study were advanced to the Class of the Fourth Year: Robert Archie Allums, John Buford Cain, Hugh Craig Castles, John Henderson Jolly, Claud Park Jones, D. W. Ulmer, J. T. Weems, A. Joe Beasley, S. F. Harkey and H. A. Wood.

It was announced that Claud Park Jones had already stood an approved examination on the Course of Study of the Fourth Year.

Introductions—Reverends H. W. May, Alonzo Early, S. S. Boggan and Leon I. McCain, of the Louisiana Conference, and Mrs. A. G. Riley, Field Secretary of the Mississippi Methodist Orphanage, were introduced to the Conference.

Afternoon Session—A motion was carried that when the Conference adjourn it adjourn to meet at 3 o'clock p. m.

Question Four—"Who are admitted into full connection?" was called, and Andrew Joseph Beasley was called to the Bar of the Conference and charged by the Bishop and, having answered the disciplinary questions was, by vote of the Conference, admitted into full connection.

Resolution on a Mississippi Hospital—The following resolution was adopted:

The members of the Mississippi Conference would have it understood that they are greatly interested in the Hospital located in Memphis, Tenn., but on account of the distance from our territory a large part of our people cannot be served by that institution, and

Whereas, a large number of our people recognize the imperative need of increased hospital facilities; therefore, be it

Resolved, First, that the presiding Bishop be requested to appoint eight laymen and eight ministers to locate, erect or buy buildings and equip the same.

Resolved, Second, that this Committee be given full powers to act as soon as in their judgment the interests of the Mississippi Conference would be promoted.

I. W. Cooper
M. M. Black
W. W. Graves
A. M. Broadfoot
A. F. Watkins,
W. H. Saunders
J. G. Galloway
J. M. Morse
C. W. Crisler
P. D. Hardin
L. L. Roberts

Chair—The Bishop requested I. W. Cooper to take the Chair.

Report of the Committee on Temperance and Social Service.

The Report of the Committee on Temperance was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—We are very grateful to Almighty God, for the advancement of the cause of temperance since we last met in Annual Conference session, and we heartily commend the faithful efforts of all the forces at work, both of Church and State; therefore, we pledge ourselves:

First: To push the battle to a complete victory over this monster evil of the world.

Second: To give special attention in these reconstructive days, to the social life of each charge.

Third: To put forth a stronger effort to help the negroes among us, in every way possible.

Signed:

A. J. DAVIS, Chairman.

J. S. PURCELL, Secretary.

Report of the Committee on the State of the Church.

The Report of the Committee on the State of the Church was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—We rejoice in the presence among us during the year of the great Head of the Church manifesting Himself in Spiritual and material blessings.

Especially do we with humble gratitude acknowledge His guiding hand in the great world conflict, out of which we are passing, as seen in the various activities that have mitigated the horrors of war and at the same time have safeguarded the souls of men from what is more greatly to be feared than the carnage of the battlefield.

The forces that make for righteousness and for world-wide peace have emanated from the Church of God.

Already nations are rejecting human creeds, are seeking light and inspiration as revealed by the teaching of our Lord.

We rejoice that the Church has been given a vision of the unparalleled opportunities for the evangelization of the world and is marshaling her forces for the speedy accomplishment of that purpose.

At the same time we would sound a note of warning against the most prevalent evils that hinder the Spiritual growth of the Church as seen in the various forms of worldliness, in the secularizing of the Sabbath, in the desuetude of family religion, and in the unpopularity of the Sunday evening services and the prayer-meetings.

We cannot expect to enlist our young people on the side of righteousness if their elders fail to set them a worthy example.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. HOPPER, Chairman.

C. F. EMERY, Secretary.

Afternoon Chairman—The Bishop requested I. W. Cooper to preside at the afternoon session until his arrival.

Adjourned—Announcements were made, the Hymn "I Am Bound for the Promised Land" was sung and the Conference adjourned with the benediction pronounced by W. H. Saunders.

Report of Committee on Orphans Home.

The Report of the Committee on Orphans Home was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—We, your Committee on Orphans' Home, beg leave to submit the following report:

We are happy to report a very prosperous and satisfactory year at the Orphanage, despite the fact of the war prices, and other conditions to be met, as shown by the report of the Board of Trustees, which we have examined and herewith submit as a part of the report.

We endorse the said report, and recommend the same to your favorable consideration, and urge the support of every member of the Conference in behalf of the Home.

We heartily commend the manager, Rev. B. F. Lewis, and his co-laborers, for their efficient and loving service, in this great work of caring for our orphans.

We make special mention of the Field Secretary, Mrs. Riley, who has charge of placing the children in good Christian homes. She has placed fifty-seven such children, during the year. A fine work.

We urge every pastor, and Sunday School Superintendent, with all the zeal and enthusiasm of our being, to take a monthly collection in every congregation for the Orphanage and send same to the Home promptly, and not wait until the close of the year.

We submit the name of Mrs. Harry Austin, who is nominated by the Women's Missionary Society, for election as a member of the Board of Directors.

There are two vacancies on the Board of Trustees, one clerical and one lay member. We recommend the election of W. E. Lampton, and the re-election of Rev. M. L. Burton.

Respectfully submitted,

JAS. HAND, Chairman.

J. T. McVEY, Secretary.

Report of the Board of Directors.

To the Mississippi Annual Conference:

We, your Board of Trustees of the Mississippi Orphans' Home, beg to submit to you this our annual report.

We wish in the beginning to express our gratitude to Almighty God for that kind providence which has been over our institution during the year. During the months of January, February and March our Home was in the throes of measles, pneumonia and whooping cough, and during October the influenza swept our ranks; but during all this there were only a very few serious cases of illness and only one death traceable directly to this disease. One little girl died of pneumonia and the death of two others was hastened by the epidemics. We feel that we have great cause for gratitude.

On November 1st, 1917, there were 185 children in the Home. During the year closing November 1st, 1918, our books showed 50 children admitted and 12 returned to the Home. Fifty-seven children have been placed in good homes, been taken out by parents or gone out for themselves, and 3 have died, leaving in the Home November 1st, 1918, 187 children. At this writing there are pending several applications for admission into the Home and several requests for children for adoption which are being investigated.

At our meeting in the spring a committee was appointed who, with the Manager, were authorized to make extensive repairs on our buildings. These repairs have been completed as far as the money would permit and we have buildings thoroughly screened, with our heating plants thoroughly overhauled, and our children are now in comfortable dormitories. We hope during the coming year, if our finances will permit, to complete the work of repairs and by the next session of the Annual Conference to report the plant in thorough condition.

On the farm we are making changes which we believe will be for our good and also for the good of our boys. Not only are our buildings and outhouses being repaired but we are introducing registered stock, preparing ourselves to properly care for this stock and as soon as possible, with our limited resources and opportunities, teach our boys in a scientific way to farm.

We hope next year to realize more largely from our farm those things needed to run the institution than heretofore.

We are sorry to have to report that the regular series of religious services usually held at the opening of our school could not be held this year. The repair work was still in progress and the noise and confusion incidental thereto would have made this exceedingly difficult. By the time the workmen had left the prevailing influenza broke out and for six weeks our time was devoted to nursing our sick. It is our purpose, however, to have these religious services held as soon after the session of our Conference as is practicable. Our Sunday School and other religious services have been in progress and we are anticipating some few changes which we believe will make them more profitable to our children. We are planning to arrange for the boys on the farm to worship with us during the ensuing year. Our school is in fine condition. We have five teachers regularly employed and every inmate of the Home old enough is in school. The course of study has been rearranged and we are correlating with the High Schools of the city of Jackson so that our pupils completing the Grammar School with us can enter the High School without conditions. One of our girls graduated last spring and is now taking the regular B.A. course at Whitworth College, being maintained by Brother James Hand, a staunch friend of the Home. Next spring two of our girls will graduate from the High School and it is our earnest desire to put them in college also if some friend will come to our assistance.

Our financial budget has been greater this year than possibly ever before in the history of the institution owing to war prices, but we are glad to say that all our bills have been promptly met and without embarrassments and we are not in debt nor have we been during the year.

Below is our financial statement for the year:

Balance on hand Nov. 1st, 1917.....	$ 6,548.44
Regular receipts from Nov. 1st, 1917, to Nov. 1st, 1918.....	21,519.33
Work Day receipts.....	5,116.52
<hr/>
Total for the year.....	$33,182.29
<hr/>
Disbursements	$29,613.61
Balance on hand.....	$ 3,568.68

The term of office of two Directors expires with this Conference, Rev. M. L. Burton and Hon. S. J. Taylor. We request that you elect their successors.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors in April Rev. B. F. Lewis of the Mississippi Conference was re-elected as Superintendent for the ensuing year. We would request his appointment by the Bishop to this work.

JNO. H. SHERARD, Chairman.

Report of the Committee on Publishing Interests.

The Report of the Committee on Publishing Interests was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

We, your Committee on Publishing Interests, submit the following report:

It is gratifying to note that in spite of the difficulties which our Publishing House has had to meet owing to the effects of the war, that we report an enlarged volume of business done. The increase for the year 1918 over 1917 was $15,394.29.

Notwithstanding the department losses of $1,826.00 on the Methodist Review, $9,005.64 on the Christian Advocate and $606.40 on the Epworth Era there is a net gain of $116,988.32.

We are pleased to report that our Church Publications still sustain their high standard of excellency both in subject matter and mechanical production. In order to sustain this standard it is imperatively necessary that our preachers and people rally to the support of the enterprise by buying our books and periodicals.

We regret the retirement of Rev. R. A. Meek, who for years so ably edited the New Orleans Christian Advocate; and at the same time we heartily endorse the appointment of Rev. Henry T. Carley as his successor, and sincerely commend him in giving us a paper in every respect worthy of a place in every Methodist home.

We recommend that the Conference during the last two weeks of January and the first two weeks of February put on a campaign for 1,500 new subscribers, and that they be distributed as follows:

Brookhaven District, 250; Jackson District, 250; Meridian District, 200; Seashore District, 200; Newton District, 200; Port Gibson District, 200; Hattiesburg District, 200. And that the District Stewards for each district apportion the number out to the charges according to their judgment. We would also urge our people not to let their subscriptions lapse by time limitations. The term of Rev. J. T. Leggett as a member of the Publishing Committee expires at this time, and we recommend his re-election.

C. C. EVANS, Chairman.

J. L. GREENWAY, Secretary.

Report Number Two of the Board of Missions.

Report Number Two of the Board of Missions was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—We, your Conference Board of Missions, beg leave to submit the following report:

There has been collected this year for Home and Conference Missions, $11,660.80, on an assessment of $13,670.00; and for Foreign Missions, $12,597.91, on an assessment of $15,000.00. There has been collected for "specials", $6,072.52, making a total for Missions of $30,301.23.

We respectfully recommend the appointment of Rev. D. E. Kelly and Rev. J. V. Bennett as Conference Evangelists for the ensuing year. We also recommend the appointment of Rev. J. L. Neill as Superintendent of the Department of Missionary Education of the General Sunday School Board. We congratulate the Sunday School Board upon the wise selection it has made, and we heartily commend Bro. Neill to the Church at large.

We congratulate the elect women of the Woman's Missionary Society upon the splendid success that has attended their efforts the past year, and we urge the heartiest co-operation with them in their noble work. A copy of their annual report is appended herewith.

A Conference Missionary Secretary to lead our Missionary Centenary Campaign has been elected by the Board, and we await his acceptance of said position.

CHARLES W. CRISLER, Treasurer,
Mississippi Conference Board of Missions.

Jackson, Mississippi;
311 North Congress Street,
December 10th, 1918.

Report of Auditing Committee.

Dear Brethren—Your Committee appointed to audit the books of the Treasurer of the Board of Missions, find the books accurately and neatly kept and would recommend the following:

Resolved, That this Conference appreciates very highly the faithful and helpful services of the Rev. C. W. Crisler, during the eight years he has held the office.

W. H. SAUNDERS,
C. C. EVANS.

Report of the Woman's Missionary Society.

To the Members of the Board of Missions, Mississippi Conference:

Brethren—We hand you herewith our printed report. Our work is in a prosperous condition. The year 1917 was the best in our history, there being a 10% advance along all lines. During the three quarters of 1918 the general office reports that we are 18% in advance of the same period last year. We ask your co-operation and prayers.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. B. F. LEWIS, Corresponding Secretary.

Report of the Committee on District Conference Records.

The Report of the Committee on District Conference Records was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—We have examined the records for each of the districts, all of which were promptly given into our hands. We find that they are neatly and correctly kept and commend the Secretaries for their faithful and efficient work.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. LINDSAY, Chairman.

J. B. CAIN, Secretary.

Epworth League Secretary—Rev. Ralph E. Nollner, Assistant General Secretary of the Epworth League, was introduced and addressed the Conference.

Report of Auditing Committee.

The Report of the Auditing Committee was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—Your Auditing Committee beg leave to submit the following report:

We have carefully audited the various reports from the several charges, turned them over to the statistical secretaries, placed the checks in the hands of the Treasurers of the different Boards and have taken their receipts for same.

We recommend the election of Rev. W. H. Lane also as a member of the Auditing Committee.

We again urge the brethren to be more prompt in handing in their reports.

T. B. COTTRELL,

For Committee.

Report of the American Bible Society Board.

The Report of the American Bible Society Board was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—The American Bible Society work commends itself to the Church as one of the indispensable conditions of the success of missionary enterprise in all parts of the world; and the Church cannot fail to give its heartiest endorsement and support. Over one hundred and twenty million copies of the Scriptures have been published in many languages and distributed broadcast throughout the world, in a little more than the one hundred years of its life. In two years' time, more than one million copies of the New Testament in forty languages were distributed to our soldiers and sailors, and in other departments of army life of the United States and the Allies. During the last year of the great war, every soldier and sailor and industrial worker in the various departments of the army had the opportunity to own a copy of the New Testament. The board of general managers of the American Bible Society are asking for continued and increased support that this great work may not have to retrench.

We have collected from the various districts and charges the sum of $845.75. The sum of $805.75 has been sent to the general agent of the Society in the southwest section of this territory. Forty dollars has been paid for the publication of the minutes, and $1.00 for stationery. We recommend that for the year 1919 the sum of $1,000.00 be assessed, as follows:

Brookhaven District.....	$150.00
Hattiesburg District.....	150.00
Jackson District.....	150.00
Meridian District.....	150.00
Newton District.....	150.00
Port Gibson District.....	125.00
Seashore District.....	125.00

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. SAUNDERS, President.

W. T. GRIFFIN, Secretary.

Report of the Hospital Committee.

The report of the Hospital Committee was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Brethren—We, the members of the Hospital Committee, beg leave to submit the following report:

Having noted with a special degree of pleasure the advancement of and the increased interest in a material way of the Methodist Hospital in Memphis: We, therefore, commend the earnest and faithful efforts of our Bro. Thomas B. King, the Financial Agent of this worthy institution. Notwithstanding the fact that said institution is located where it will be impractical for most all cases within the bounds of the Mississippi Conference to have and to receive a real benefit from the institution, and that the Mississippi Conference has deemed it wise to appoint a Commission looking to the erection of a hospital near by, we beg leave to say that the interest and progress of the hospital in Memphis has our best wishes in every particular.

L. L. ROBERTS, Chairman.

C. A. SCHULTZ, Secretary.

Report Number Two of the Sunday School Board.

Report Number Two of the Sunday School Board was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—We beg to submit the following report:

The statistics indicate progress the past year in the work of the General Board.

There has been a substantial increase in the number of Sunday Schools, but there are still 2,565 Church organizations without Sunday Schools. During the year 64,873 Sunday School pupils were received into Church membership.

Children's Day offerings and Missionary contributions are in excess of last year.

The work in all departments is well organized, and is being directed by splendid leadership.

Gratifying results have attended the work in our Conference.

The report of Bro. Chambers, Field Secretary, reveals a marvel of accomplishment.

Perhaps our greatest need is for trained teachers. We would, therefore, urge our pastors and Superintendents to provide the Teachers' Training Course in all our Schools.

We recommend the employment of an elementary Field worker the coming year.

We also recommend the employment of our present Field Secretary for another year.

Following is the Treasurer's report:

Report of Committee on Sabbath Observance.

The Report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—We, your Committee on Sabbath Observance, beg leave to submit the following report:

It is a deplorable fact that in many communities our people have too little regard for the Christian Sabbath.

We believe that the welfare of our Nation, as well as the progress of Methodism depends upon proper reverence for the Lord's day. Therefore, we urge our pastors to emphasize the sacredness of this day in the home-life of our people.

We shall have solved this great question, when our fathers and mothers come to recognize the spirit of the Christian Sabbath. When we reach the home-life of the Church, Sunday train riding, and automobile pleasure seekers will be in the pews on Sunday morning. Then people will not become too old to attend Sunday School; and stay at home to read the Sunday paper.

Respectfully submitted,

HILARY S. WESTBROOK, Chairman.

J. H. MOORE, Secretary.

Manager Orphans Home—B. F. Lewis, Manager of the Mississippi Methodist Orphans Home, addressed the Conference.

Chair—Bishop Kilgo took the Chair.

Sunday School Field Secretary—John C. Chambers, Sunday School Field Secretary, addressed the Conference.

Report of the Epworth League Board.

The Report of the Epworth League Board was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Brethren—We are glad to report the continued growth of the Epworth League, both in numbers and efficiency, and urge our pastors who haven't Leagues to organize them as early as possible during the coming year.

The League has approved the part allotted for the Centenary of Missions, and has entered upon the campaign for raising it. We congratulate and endorse the work being done by the Mississippi Conference Epworth League; especially do we rejoice that fifty-five young people offered themselves at the last session of the Conference for service anywhere the Lord may want them. We urge our pastors to attend the next session at Laurel, June 17-20, 1919, and have their young people attend. We desire to call your attention to Anniversary Day, second Sunday in May, and ask that it be properly observed; also call to your attention that there is now no charge for a charter for your League. The Church's need for more efficient Leagues was never more urgent than now; with the return of our soldier boys it makes it imperative that the Church through the League look after the social, physical and spiritual life of them and the other young people of the Church, in order that they may be saved to Jesus Christ and a life of usefulness in the Church. Our Conference League has agreed to raise one thousand dollars for the African Special.

We urge the pastors to commit themselves to the organization of Leagues, both Senior and Junior, on their charge, that both the young people and the children be brought into and trained for service in the Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

W. D. HAWKINS,
President of the Board.

Question Six—"Who are received by transfer from other Conferences?" was called, and H. B. Perritt, from the Louisiana Conference, and S. F. Harkey, from the North Mississippi Conference, were received.

Monday Session—A motion was adopted that the Conference hold the Monday morning session at 8:30 o'clock.

Recognition of Orders—W. L. Linfield presented the application, in proper form and duly recommended by the Newton District Conference, of Matthew James Miller, an Elder in the Congregational Methodist Church. By vote of the Conference he was granted recognition as a Local Elder.

Reconsideration Rejected—A motion to reconsider the action of the Conference at the Morning Session, whereby the report of the Joint Board of Finance was amended to increase the appropriation of the Conference claimants from $17,500.00 to $20,000.00, was rejected.

Memorial Session—A motion was adopted that when the Conference adjourn it adjourn to meet on Sunday Afternoon at 3 o'clock in Memorial Session.

Adjourned—It was announced that Rev. J. S. Purcell would preach this evening at 7:30 o'clock, the Hymn "Oh, How I Love Jesus" was sung, and the Conference adjourned with the benediction pronounced by J. L. Decell.

FIFTH DAY.

McComb, Mississippi, December 8, 1918.

Memorial Session—The Conference met in Memorial Session at 3 o'clock p. m., J. L. Sells, presiding.

Hymn Number 50, "Abide With Me", was sung, and W. W. Moore led the Conference in prayer.

E. H. Mounger read the Scripture lesson from the Twenty-second Chapter of Revelation.

Question Twenty-one—"What preachers have died during the year?" was called. The Committee on Memoirs reported that John Henry Evans had died, and that the name of Prof. R. S. Ricketts, for many years an honored and much loved professor in Millsaps College, had been referred to the Committee by special resolution of the Conference.

The Memoir of Brother Evans was read by W. M. Williams.

The Lewis brothers quartette sang "The Beautiful Land."

A. F. Watkins read the Memoir of Prof. Ricketts.

Pending the adoption of the report affectionate tribute to the memory of the departed brethren was paid by C. W. Crisler, E. H. Mounger, W. H. Huntley, W. B. Jones, R. H. Barr, J. L. Purcell, G. H. Thompson, A. F. Watkins, L. L. Roberts, Meredith Woods, M. L. White and W. H. LaPrade.

The Report was adopted by a rising vote.

On motion the Conference adjourned with the singing of the Doxology and the benediction pronounced by A. S. Oliver.

REV. J. H. EVANS.

In the death of the Rev. John Henry Evans, the Mississippi Conference has lost one of the most beloved members of its Roll of Honor, as Methodists delight to call their list of worn-out preachers. Born April 25th, 1823, he lacked only a few weeks of completing the ninety-fifth year of his life. Four years a brave and devoted Confederate Soldier, and nearly fifty years a faithful and self-denying minister, he had fairly won the rest that came to him in 1894 with his retirement from the active ministry. Thenceforth he waited the lengthening shadows of that closing day with the same quiet courage with which he had borne the labors of his active life. It was in the growing darkness of the night that was to give place to the morning of the Nativity, that the wearied soldier of Jesus Christ laid aside the "two edged blade of heavenly temper keen", to pass into the presence of his Lord to be forever with Him Whom he had loved and served so long.

He was born in old Winchester, in Wayne County, Miss., the son of Isaac Thomas and Martha Goodwin Evans. When a child he moved with his parents to Jones County, Miss., where he seems to have spent the years of his youth. Two indications exist of the devoutness of his parents, and of the wholesome religious atmosphere of the home of his childhood: first, that he was converted and joined the Church when a child; and secondly, that in the last hours of life the old saint repeated, over and over, the childhood prayer, learned only at the knee of a Godly mother:

"Now I lay me down to sleep;
I pray Thee, Lord, my soul to keep;
If I should die before I wake,
I pray Thee, Lord, my soul to take".

October 13th, 1851, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Echols, who died June 30th, 1858, leaving three children: Mrs. S. T. Thorn of Meridian, Mrs. Bettie Finch of Montrose, and J. M. Evans of Pelahatchie.

At the beginning of the Civil War he entered the Confederate Army, serving with a courage characteristic of the man, and worthy of the highest traditions of that heroic struggle. He was wounded several times, suffering on one occasion the loss of an eye, and finally receiving, by the bursting of a shell, such injuries to his head as to necessitate his discharge from the service. From these wounds he did not recover to the day of his death. While upon his bed, suffering from his wounds, he joined the Methodist Protestant Church, and in 1865 was licensed to preach. The union of the Methodist Protestant Church in Mississippi, with the Mississippi Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was consummated in 1871, and of this union Bro. Evans was one of the most active and influential promoters, and at the session of the Conference held in Meridian in December of that year, he was received into the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Twenty-three years were spent in the pastoral work of this Conference, confined almost wholly to the south-central section of the State. Nine years were given to Raleigh, three each to the Williamsburg and Cato Circuits, two each to Walnut Grove, Trenton and Rankin, and one each to Franklinton and Leaf River Circuits.

February 10th, 1869, he was married to Miss Rachel J. Franklin. To them were born three daughters: Mrs. S. L. Thompson, Carlos, Texas; Mrs. Hattie McDonald, Rankin, Texas, and Miss Beulah Evans, Collins, Miss. Bro. Evans and his wife have been richly blessed in the skillful and unselfish attentions of Miss Beulah. In the years of his age and feebleness, when at times the mother was almost as helpless as the father, this devoted daughter gave herself with unremitting devotion that cannot be surpassed, to the kindly ministry that in the providence of God was committed to her. Surely the blessings promised to those who honor their father and their mother must rest in unmeasured benediction upon this dutiful and affectionate daughter.

After his retirement from the active ministry, Bro. Evans settled upon a little farm at Williamsburg, Miss., where he continued to live until 1907. He then bought a little home in Collins, where he resided during the remaining years of his life.

The funeral services were held in the Methodist Church in Collins, Christmas Day, 1917, and were conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. M. Williams, assisted by Rev. George H. Thompson, the Presiding Elder of the Meridian District, and Rev. W. B. Jones, the Presiding Elder of the Hattiesburg District. The interment took place in the Collins Cemetery, with Masonic honors.

In person Brother Evans was tall, large of frame, and broad shouldered. He must have been a powerful man in the vigor of his young manhood. He had an intent and aggressive look and a directness of movement that bore witness to the strength and independence of his character. He was afraid of nothing, and yet modest with all. Positive in his convictions and outspoken in his denunciations of sin, he was kindly and sympathetic in his spirit. He accepted without abatement the tenets of Wesleyan Arminianism, delighted to proclaim them as the truth of God, and rejoiced in his personal experience of justification by faith, and the witness of the Spirit. In the later years of his life he was deprived of the privileges of public worship; but when possible he was in his place in the congregation, rejoicing in the communion of the saints.

The closing days were days of great joy. Words of prayer and praise trembled upon his lips; his wearied hands were uplifted in adoration; and the voice that had so often shouted to the battle in feeble accents gave utterance to the songs of Zion.

PROFESSOR R. S. RICKETTS.

Professor R. S. Ricketts died at his home in Jackson, Monday afternoon, February 25th, 1918, at 3:40 o'clock.

Perhaps it would not be extravagant to say that he was the best loved man in Mississippi. By this we do not mean that he was the most distinguished, or most widely known citizen of our State; nor, upon the other hand, do we mean simply to express the conviction that among those who knew him he was more universally admired and beloved than any other man in Mississippi. We wish to combine these statements and say that, in view of the wide circle of his acquaintances, and the universal love of those who knew him, no man in Mississippi was more greatly loved. For twenty-eight years he had taught young ladies in Methodist Colleges in Mississippi, and for twenty-four years he had taught young men in Millsaps College. When we consider the thousands of young women and young men who have come within the range of his influence, and of the universal impression made upon them of the singular beauty and sweetness of his character, it is not too much, we think, to say that he was the best beloved man in our State.

Robert Scott Ricketts was one of a long list of preachers' sons, who, by their devoted and self-sacrificing service to their fellowman, and the unquestioned integrity of their Christian lives, have reflected credit upon the calling of their minister fathers. He was born March 5th, 1843, at Vicksburg, Miss., where his father, the Rev. R. B. Ricketts, an honored member of the Mississippi Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was living. His boyhood and youth were spent in West Feliciana and Baton Rouge Parishes, of the State of Louisiana. In Baton Rouge he attended the celebrated Collegiate Institute, conducted by Dr. W. H. N. McGruder, recognized by the older Methodist people as one of the greatest educators of the Southwest. He was a student at old Centenary, Jackson, La., when the Civil War broke out, and, though but a youth, he promptly volunteered and served his State and the Southern Confederacy, first in a Louisiana Cavalry Regiment, and afterwards in a Signal Service Corps. He was twice captured by Federal soldiers and imprisoned in Baton Rouge and New Orleans. After serving as a brave and faithful soldier, he was honorably discharged, and began teaching, the work to which he devoted his long and useful life. He taught first in association with his old preceptor at the Collegiate Institute in Baton Rouge, and later with Dr. Wright, the President of the Port Gibson Female College. In 1875 he came to Brookhaven, Miss., as a member of the faculty of Whitworth Female College, at that time under the distinguished presidency of Dr. Harvey F. Johnson. After the death of Dr. Johnson in 1886, he continued his connection with Whitworth College under the presidency of the late Lewis T. Fitzhugh, where he was associated with Doctor (now Bishop) W. B. Murrah, for many years the distinguished President of Millsaps College. Appreciation of the charm of his personal character, and admiration for his talents as a teacher, caused Bishop Galloway and Dr. Murrah to recommend him for the position of Head Master of the Preparatory Department of Millsaps College. He was elected to this position, and assumed charge of this department in 1894. Here he continued to serve God and his fellowmen with distinguished devotion and success until two months before he died, when he was compelled by failing health to give up his work. On the 17th day of March, 1877, he was happily married to Miss Bertha Burnley, of Brookhaven, and to them were born five children, four sons and a daughter, all of whom, with their mother, survive the father, except one son, Charles Cosby, who died in his childhood. Of these sons, Robert is a prominent lawyer, Edwin a mechanical engineer of distinction, living in New York City, John an officer in the United States Artillery, and Miss Bertha the wife of Dr. Charles B. Sumner, living in Ithaca, New York. The secret of the peculiarly gentle and beautiful life of Dr. Ricketts is not hard to find. It was not that he was naturally of gentle and gracious spirit; he was thus blessed, but only a heart dominated by the Spirit of the Lord Jesus could have been as nearly faultless as his. It cannot be doubted that the gracious influence of a parsonage home had much to do with the beauty of his life. He used to say that he did not know when he was converted, and with a suggestion of wistfulness to add, "Sometimes I wish I did know the time and place", but he always reassured his own heart by saying, "I know that I HAVE been converted, and that I love God and my fellowmen, and that God for Christ's sake has forgiven my sins." If the Church were more thoughtful in the religious tuition of its children, such religious experiences would be more typical, and there would be fewer of those great epochal translations from darkness to light; men would be born, as please God men will be born, more and more as children into the Kingdom of Heaven, and they would cross the line from darkness to light with the footsteps of a child, and not know those crucial experiences that have marked the life of wayward men. The path that marks his religious life began as a little child, and ended at the foot of the throne, and he was all the more beautiful in his Christian life because of this. It has been a common saying with Millsaps boys these twenty-five years that "Prof. Ricketts was the best man I ever saw", and at a memorial service held in the college chapel the morning after his death, one of the students said, "I would rather lose every other influence that has ever touched me since I became a student of Millsaps College than to lose the gracious influence exerted upon my life by Prof. Ricketts since I came to Millsaps five years ago". One said of him, "I have known him more than forty years, and in all those years I have never heard him speak unkindly of a human being." He seemed to be everybody's friend, and people indulged towards him, apparently, the spirit of proprietorship; for instance, a lady said, "He was our particular friend", and when one said "O, yes, he was everybody's friend", she said, "Yes, but we have always felt, my husband and I, that we had a sort of proprietary claim in him". And a strong man said, "I have sustained a great loss, for, whenever I was in doubt, or in trouble, I came to him for counsel and my doubts were resolved, and my trouble lifted", and the one to whom the statement was made said, "O, yes, he was everybody's counsellor and advisor". A friend in speaking of him said, "He was marked by the brightness of Sydney Smith, and the gracious spirit of Charles Lamb". At its Commencement in May, 1917, during the celebration of the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of Major Millsaps, the Board of Trustees honored itself by conferring upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Letters, an honor all the more conspicuous, since it is the only time this institution has ever conferred an honorary degree. Dr. Ricketts was a man marked by a great love of learning, and a very fine literary taste. In his earlier years he was a frequent contributor to the columns of the New Orleans Christian Advocate, and other periodicals of his Church, always writing with an unusual grace and dignity. He was gifted with an unusual spirit of jovialness, and marked by a quiet humor that was almost irresistible in its quaintness and beauty; but he was not a practical joker, and there was never the suggestion of a sting in his bright and witty remarks.

From his youth he occupied an official position in the Church, always taught a class in the Sunday School, always served on the Board of Stewards, and the preacher himself could not have been more constant and regular in his attendance upon the ordinances of the Church. To the preacher he was a source of inspiration and helpfulness, and to the young preacher, as this writer well remembers, he was a kindly critic and gracious friend. The people of Jackson seemed to realize that to them it had been given to witness the closing of a life of singular beauty and grace, and the great Galloway Memorial Church was thronged with sorrowing friends upon the occasion of his funeral. The services were conducted by A. F. Watkins, President of Millsaps College, assisted by Rev. C. W. Crisler, Pastor of Galloway Memorial Church; Dr. J. B. Hutton, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Jackson, and Rev. J. M. Morse, Presiding Elder of the Jackson District. The interment took place in Cedar Lawn Cemetery, at Jackson. As we stood in the presence of all that was mortal of our translated friend, we felt that we could wish for no man a greater blessing than this: "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his."

SIXTH DAY.

McComb, Mississippi, December 9, 1918.

Opening—The Conference met at 8:30 o'clock a. m. with Bishop Kilgo in the Chair.

Devotions—The Bishop read and expounded a Scripture lesson from the Fourth Chapter of Timothy. Hymn Number 508 was sung and the Conference was led in prayer by M. B. Sharbrough.

Minutes—The Minutes of the Fourth Day, afternoon, and Fifth Day, Memorial, Sessions, were read and approved.

Absentees—J. F. McClelland and W. D. Davis, a lay delegate from the Brookhaven District, not having previously answered to their names, were noted as present.

Question Eleven—"What traveling preachers are ordained Deacons?" was called, and the answer was: None.

Question Thirteen—"What local preachers are ordained Deacons?" was called, and the answer was: None.

Question Fifteen—"What traveling preachers are ordained Elders?" was called. Bishop Kilgo announced that on Sunday, December 8, 1918, at the morning hour in the Centenary Methodist Church, McComb, Mississippi, assisted by four Elders, and according to the Ritual of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, he ordained the following persons to the office of Elder: Mounger Favre Adams, Reginald Holloway Clegg, Murdock West David, Stuart Calhoun Moody, Martin William Porter, Thomas Brantley Winstead, Ernest Hamilton Cooley.

The Presiding Elder of the Hattiesburg District reported that during the year Bishop McMurry had ordained Clinton J. Bushey, a local preacher in the Hattiesburg District, to the offices of Local Deacon and Local Elder, to enable him to undertake the Chaplaincy in the U. S. Army.

Certificate of Agreement—S. B. Watkins, received as a traveling preacher from the Congregational Methodist Church, being sick and unable to attend the service for the purpose of taking the vows, submitted the following written agreement thereto:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brothers—This is to certify, that I, S. B. Watkins, a traveling preacher in the Congregational Methodist Church, do agree with and subscribe to the Doctrines, polity, and Orders of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and do hereby take upon myself the ordination vows of an Elder in the said Church.

S. B. WATKINS.

December 8, 1918.

Question Seventeen—"What local preachers are ordained Elders?" was called, and the answer was: None.

Report of the Board of Lay Activities.

The Report of the Board of Lay Activities was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—We, your Board on Lay Activities, beg leave to make the following report:

We rejoice that peace has come to the world again. We recognize the fact that permanent peace can come only through the power of the Holy Spirit as the Representative of the Prince of Peace. We pray, therefore, that He may rule in the reconstruction of the world.

We endorse the action of both the Memphis and Junaluska Conferences and pledge ourselves to co-operate heartily in the Centenary Campaign and to let it be our main object of endeavor during the next four years.

We recommend the election of Professor G. L. Harrell as Conference Lay Leader.

G. L. HARRELL, Chairman.

J. M. SULLIVAN, Secretary.

Question Fifty-one—"Who is elected Conference Lay Leader?" was called, and on nomination, Prof. G. L. Harrell was elected.

Questions Twenty-three to Fifty were called and answered by the Statistical Secretary. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Statistics Recommitted—A motion was adopted to recommit the Membership Statistics to the Presiding Elders for correction, and to be returned to the Secretary in ten days.

Chair—The Bishop called W. M. Sullivan to the Chair.

Report Number Two of the Board of Education.

Report Number Two of the Board of Education was read and recommitted for amendment and completion. The report was resubmitted, as amended and completed, and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—Your Board of Education beg leave to report the following:

Mississippi Conferences' Colleges and Schools.

Millsaps—Millsaps College, our great coeducational institution, with Teacher Training Department, is now a Government military training camp, but the War Department will effect demobilization about January 1st. The Government has erected one building and renovated another during its use of the College property.

Professors	14
Students	196

Rev. M. M. Black, Commissioner of Millsaps College, announces the new goal to be $80,000.00 and receipts for Dormitory to date $61,000.00. The property is valued at $280,000.00 with productive endowment of $576,170.00. Millsaps is recognized as a great educational institution, whose graduates measure well with the alumni of any College. Its most imperative need is the building of a dormitory.

President Watkins states that a large number of students came on the opening day to consider the matter of matriculation, and disappeared within a day or two, going to other institutions, the cause being lack of adequate dormitory facilities. The Conference, we are sure, will co-operate heartily with the Commissioner, and the President in providing a dormitory.

It is with sorrow your Board reports the death of three of the professors of the institution, namely: Dr. R. S. Ricketts of the Preparatory School; Judge A. H. Whitfield, Dean of the Law School, and Dr. John Marvin Burton, the head of the Department of Romance Languages, who died in France as a member of the American Expeditionary Forces.

Whitworth—This is the Mississippi Conference's higher institution of learning for young ladies. The property is valued at $150,000.00.

Teachers	20
Students	236

Port Gibson—This is one of our oldest institutions for the education of our daughters, well worthy of patronage.

Teachers	12
Students	92

Sea Shore Camp Ground School—This school reaches a class of people which renders it a valuable asset to our Methodism and is worthy of the best support. It is valued at $100,000.00.

Teachers	5
Students	104

Mississippi Conference Training School—This school had a fine opening and is looking forward to a successful year.

Teachers	6
Students	195

Sea Shore Divinity School—The undergraduates of three Conferences—Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana—and many of the older ministers gather at the Sea Shore Camp Ground annually, where the school holds its sessions, to pursue their theological studies and are furnished with good teachers and the best lecturers the Church produces.

Emory University—We are pleased to note the flourishing condition of Emory University. As indicated by the annual report furnished us by Bishop Warren A. Candler, the Chancellor, and by the verbal representations of Rev. Robert Selby, Commissioner.

Number of students enrolled in all departments.....	512
Patients treated in the "J. J. Gray Clinic" annually.....	30,000
Property valued at.....	$1,500,000.00

Report of the Commission on Finance.

The Report of the Commission on Finance was read and adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—Your Commission on Finance reports as follows: After carefully considering all the assessments requested by the various Conference Boards recommended an assessment on the Conference of $87,187.00 for all the benevolent claims. Of this amount, $43,180.00 is for general work, and $44,007.00 for local work.

The assessments are to be distributed to the several Districts as follows:

	Local Work.	General Work.
Brookhaven District.....	$ 6,982.00	$ 6,850.00

Report of the Board of Church Extension.

The Report of the Board of Church Extension was read and received as follows:

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—This report closes the work of your Board for this quadrennium, and we are glad to say that we have made more real progress in our ability to help in the building of churches and parsonages than during any preceding quadrennium of the Board.

We have had more donation funds at our disposal, and by setting apart a portion of the receipts for the past eight years, we have built up a Conference Loan Fund which now enables us to give substantial help to the applications before us.

This year we have received $695.28 more than in any previous year, on the assessments.

During this quadrennium your Board has aided 45 churches by donations in the sum of $4,550.00 and by loans to the amount of $3,950.00. We have assisted 16 parsonages by donations to the amount of $1,505.00 and one by a loan of $600.00. A total invested in churches and parsonages during this quadrennium of $13,189.00.

The General Board has also aided a number of churches and parsonages within our Conference during this time.

Conference Board Loan Funds.

Eight years ago we began building up a Conference Loan Fund. Today this fund amounts to $4,305.15. But by being able to turn this money over every few years we have granted loans to the amount of $4,550.00 during this quadrennium, which is $245.00 more than the total fund accumulated during the past eight years. We would urge our pastors to encourage their people to ask for loans rather than donations.

Church Architecture.

In Louisville, Ky., the Board of Church Extension has a Department of Church Architecture, with Dr. J. A. Baylor as Secretary. We earnestly request every pastor who contemplates building a church to correspond with that office before deciding upon a plan.

Insurance.

Again we would call your attention to the importance of keeping all our churches and parsonages insured.

Applications.

We have aided the following churches and parsonages this year:

By donations as follows:

Harriston	$250.00	Gloster	$150.00

The parsonage on the Americus charge was given $150.00.

The General Board this year has aided churches within our Conference as follows:

Tylertown by a loan of....	$2,000.00	Camden by donation.....	$200.00
Harriston by donation.....	200.00	Long Beach by donation.....	410.56

Report of W. D. Davis, Treasurer of the Board.

Balance on 35th assessment, per last report.....	$ 144.03
Received on 36th assessment.....	6,590.00
Conditional donation to Byrum, not yet paid.....	175.00
Total.....	$6,909.03

Disbursements.

To expense account.....	$ 20.70
To printing minutes.....	55.00
To General Board for C. M. E. Ch. Ex. Board.....	63.00
To General Board for Churches and Parsonages.....	6,580.33
Balance on hand.....	$ 190.00

The assessment for the ensuing year is $8,204.00, an increase of $104.00.

The Chairman and Secretary of the Board were elected to represent the Board at the meeting of Conference Board Representatives to be held in Louisville, Ky., next May.

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. WILLIAMS, Chairman.
L. E. ALFORD, Secretary.

Resolutions—Thanks.

The following Resolutions of Thanks were read and adopted by a rising vote:

Resolutions of Thanks.

Whereas, We rejoice with the good people of McComb in the spiritual and material blessings that have come to them from our Heavenly Father, whereby they have been enabled to erect this beautiful house of worship since we last assembled here in Conference Session in 1901;

Therefore, be it resolved:

First, That we thank the citizens of McComb for their generous hospitality, and pray upon them the continued blessings of the Great Head of the Church;

Second, That we thank the hosts of the Conference, Reverends J. L. Decell, A. B. Barry and A. M. Broadfoot, for their kindness in providing for our entertainment;

Third, That we especially thank Brother S. Hibbert for his care of the Church and for his many courtesies to us;

Fourth, That we thank the pastors and congregations of the city for the use of their houses of worship, and the City Administration for the use of the City Hall;

Fifth, That we thank Miss Bessie M. Hall for her kindness in typewriting the work of our Boards and Committees;

Sixth, That we thank our Official Reporter, Rev. J. C. Chambers, for his efficient work, and the press generally for publishing the proceedings of the Conference;

Seventh, That we heartily thank our Secretaries and Auditors for their excellent work.

Respectfully submitted,

C. F. EMERY,
J. S. PURCELL,
J. G. GALLOWAY,
W. M. WILLIAMS,
J. M. MORSE,
M. A. MASSEY,
JOHN A. McLEOD.

Minutes—The Minutes of the Session were read and adopted.

Final Adjournment—A motion was made that the Conference adjourn sine die with the reading of the appointments.

“In the Sweet Bye and Bye” was sung and the Conference was led in prayer by Bishop Kilgo. The Bishop called

Mississippi Conference Training School

Special training is now imperative in all human endeavor. The Church, above all, should prepare for best character and best service.

FRUIT B O R N E IS GOD'S STANDARD OF JUDGMENT

The scores of useful ministers and the hundreds of consecrated men and women in various callings bear testimony to the merits of this institution.

The literary department ranks as academy, and prepares for Sophomore in A-grade colleges. Departments of Music and Expression. Classes in Bible and S. S. Teacher Training.

Co-educational. Freedom from distraction. Rates low. Co-operation is desired in developing a great and ideal training school.
